

DR. EMMA DUFFY

PALMS CO-FOUNDER & CHIEF EDUCATION OFFICER

Dr. Emma Duffy is an esteemed leader with over 10 years of experience in the field of early education. Emma's passion for education is evident in her commitment to fostering and spreading joy in early childhood education for both educators and young learners. During her fantastic career, Emma has stepped into many roles as an educator, professional development trainer, school leader, CDA professional development specialist, education coach, and US training and systems manager with tenacity and drive.

Emma's distinguished background in education has contributed to her growing pursuit of creating the best possible learning environment for children and educators. With a Bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education and Preschool Special Needs and Infant/Toddler Endorsement Certificates, a Master's Degree in Educational Leadership, and a Doctoral Degree in Educational Leadership and Advocacy, Emma's love of learning shines through.

When not playing in the classroom, Emma enjoys spending time with her husband and two children, Bennett and Addison.

Emma's ultimate goal is to establish a lifelong love of learning for the children she works with through a child-led learning focus.
